

2010 Spring
Propagation Fair
Lane County, OR

Lane Community College Cafeteria
10.00 a.m. - 4.00 p.m.
Saturday, March 13

A free, volunteer-driven event designed to support local home orchardists, vegetable gardeners & native plant enthusiasts.

A great variety of scions (fruit-tree cuttings) and vegetable seed will be made freely available by local fruit enthusiasts and seed-savers at the Fair. Rootstocks will be available for a nominal fee. Grafting assistance will be provided. Feeling adventurous? Grafting workshop: 1.00 p.m.

Bring your own labeled cuttings and divisions of figs, grapes, berries and other fruits to share freely with others, along with fresh seed, live plants and divisions of all types of food crops & native plants.

Ask questions of experienced local gardeners and a broad array of our foremost gardening-education non-profits. Hear expert speakers throughout the day.

Co-sponsored by the Eugene Permaculture Guild, the Seed Ambassadors Project, Lane Community College Learning Garden, Victory Gardens For All, School Garden Project of Lane County, Huerto de la Familia, ECOS, the Springfield Transitions Garden, the Gardens Program of Food for Lane County, Urban Farm Program of the U of O, Home Orchard Society, the OSU Extension Service in Lane County, USDA Agricultural Research Service National Clonal Germplasm Repository, Corvallis; Native Gardening Awareness Program of the Native Plant Society of Oregon, Emerald Chapter, Lane County Beekeepers Association, Eugene Tree Foundation, Food Not Lawns.
